NOTE

As it is necessary to begin printing WHO'S WHO in August, in many cases occurrences of a later date are not recorded, deaths reported up to the middle of October have been included, however, in the Obituary

In view of misunderstandings that sometimes arise it should be pointed out that the statements in regard to children of a marriage should be the number of sons and daughters now living, also, under Clubs it is the practice to print the names of London clubs without the word London at the end, although in the case of clubs elsewhere the name of the towns where they are situated should be given

It is well to bear in mind that a proof for correction cannot be sent unless there is an address As any sort of correction, even well-meant attempts to cut down biographies, involves expense, it is requested that no alterations should be made unless absolutely necessary Corrections must be made on the proofs themselves, and not written out on separate slips of paper

Any one who has had the Companionage of a British Order conferred on him and has not yet been included is invited to write for a form on which to fill in particulars as to birth, parentage, career, etc, for the next edition

Is it fair to your best friend to make him your Executor? The duties are onerous, and usually thankless; the responsibilities are great and the penalties for neglect are severe. Moreover, he may die, and the expense of appointing his successor is considerable. On the other hand, if you appoint the Westminster Bank instead, the fees (which are paid out of your estate) will probably be only a fraction of the legacy which you would have left to a private trustee.

Ask for the 'Executor and Trustee' booklet at any local branch, or write to HELP us in our crusade to save all lambs, sheep and those pigs killed in the 16,000 private slaughter-houses throughout the country from the horrors of old-fashioned and barbarous methods of slaughter These animals have been left unprotected by the recently passed Slaughter of Animals Act

As they are killed that we may live, the least we can do is to ensure for them a painless death

A Word to All Humane People!

WHEN the Ill-treatment of Cattle Bill, commonly known as "Martin's Act," was passed in July 1822 the principle of animals' rights was recognised After more than a hundred years of definite humane education is it too much to ask that the law should extend its protection to "wild" sentient creatures ill-treated for the purposes of sport—"pleasure?" Why should the law refuse its protection to any sensitive creature?

YOU ARE INVITED TO JOIN THE LEAGUE FOR PROHIBITION OF CRUEL SPORTS and help to obtain one standard of justice for wild and tame alike

Secretary ARTHUR GOODIFF,
O D F L, 72 Victoria Street, S W 1

P. & C. A. D. LEAGUE

THE Performing and Captive Animals Defence League is a Society, founded in 1914, to attack a particularly terrible form of secret cruelty to defenceless animals for the amusement of mankind, namely, professionally trained animal performances It further seeks to educate public opinion to the point of regarding enforced captivity of wild birds and animals as a crime—in fact a fundamental crime—for practically all forms of active cruelty are based upon captivity It also attacks Rodeo, in which form of entertainment horrible and sometimes disgusting cruelty is practised by preventing its recrudescence in this country

But the heaviest part of its work is in combating the increasing amount of cold-blooded cruelty in Animal Film production

Such cruelties, apart from their intrinsic evil, have an insidious effect upon audiences, and especially upon children

The League is endeavouring to induce the authorities to institute the only policy to make the infliction of these secret cruelties unprofitable

Particulars of the struggle this League is having against powerful interests and the lust for cruelty, may be obtained from

CAPTAIN EDMUND T MACMICHAEL, HON SECRETARY, and Subscriptions and Donations, which are of vital necessity to the Work, should be sent to

ROBERT H SPURRIER, ESQ, HON TREASURER,

Performing and Captive Animals' Defence League, 17 Buckingham Street, Adelphi, W C 2.

DEVOTED SERVICE

THERE are few human needs, from the cradle to the grave, to which the Salvation Army does not minister Every kind of Social institution has come into existence in The Army All represent devoted and skilled service, and the workers realise that mere social amelioration is not enough A new heart, by Divine grace, is needed to help in the struggle against a lapse into old ways All this work is entirely dependent upon voluntary gifts

THE SALVATION ARMY

Who's Who in the Blind World

AT THE NATIONAL INSTITUTE FOR THE BLIND THERE IS A BLIND WHO'S WHO, CONSTITUTING A RECORD OF THE MANY AND SOMETIMES ASTONISHING ACHIEVEMENTS OF BLIND PEOPLE

These people have conquered blindness by their own courage and ability, and by making use of the special means devised to assist them

The National Institute provides these special means It is the largest publisher of Braille books and periodicals in the world, it supplies apparatus and appliances, it maintains Homes for Blind Babies, a College for Blind Girls, and a School of Massage In brief, it helps in every possible way the 62,000 blind people of this country to attain independence and success

Will you please help the Institute's work so that the number of people who, by their achievements, gain a place in the Blind Who's Who may be increased

Donations are immediately needed and should be sent to
